Academic Calendar

Effective: 01/02/2019

Program Start Dates

East West College of Natural Medicine schedules ten terms in a calendar year. Each term meets for five weeks. The Master of Science in Oriental Medicine (MSOM) program schedules three terms in a calendar year that meet for fifteen weeks each.

East West College of Natural Medicine observes Constitution and Citizenship Day on September 17th of each year to commemorate the September 17, 1787 signing of the United States Constitution. If September 17th falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, the College will celebrate Constitution Day during the preceding or following week.

Tuition and Fees

Students are billed each quarter based on the number of credit hours in which they are enrolled for the quarter and the cost per credit hour for their program. Full time students must take a minimum of twelve (12) quarter credit hours or a maximum of nineteen (19) quarter credit hours per term. Although East West College of Natural Medicine encourages all students to attend full time occasionally students may attend part-time. If a student is attending part-time, financial aid will be adjusted based on actual hours attended.
